JOEL VERSHOOT:

"I have always had great confidence in Contador. He is a pigeon you can always count on. I could tell with almost total certainty when he was up for a great result, solely based on how he would behave before a race. Before believing him for Libourne 2018, I could tell from the way he trained, his self-confidence in his box and his overall attitude that he would do something special on a few days' time. I also knew that he tends to get his best results towards the latter half of the season, and so I was confident enough to basket him as my first nomination. We saw Contador come home in a battle, and he was momentarily the first pigeon to arrive from all national level, before eventually settling for sixth place national from Libourne."
